

Fall's four boxes

So, he took out a large piece of paper and painted four large boxes.

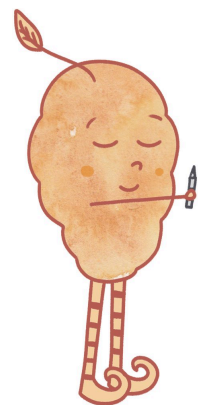

WHAT FALL WROTE IN HIS BOX

I'm grateful for:

- for my warm boots
- because I learned to stay still and enjoy a hot drink
- that Spring cannot do without me!
- for Winter's honey-cakes!

What do YOU think? What things are you grateful for today?

Grown-ups: read Fall's list out loud, then turn the page and make a board like his. A thing, a moment, a sibling, something yummy: anything counts.

My thankful board

A big box to draw in. A grown-up writes the words on the line.

I'm grateful for:

Fall

Leaves, boots, a warm drink?

Spring

Flowers, rain, little bugs?

Summer

Sun, sea, an ice pop?

Winter

Snow, honey-cakes, a cozy bed?
