

How to draw an elf

One step at a time: the black lines are new, the gray ones you drew already.

Let's draw Pocket the elf! First, a floppy hat with a pom pom.

Now his face and two pointy ears, with curly hair under the hat.

Now dot eyes, eyebrows, a little nose, and a big happy mouth.

Now a knitted scarf around his neck, with a stripy tail hanging down.

Now his sweater with a band at the bottom, and a snowflake on it.

Now one arm waving hello, with fingers, and the other arm down.

Now a letter in his hand, with a flap and a round seal.

Last, two legs and two big boots. Hello, Pocket!
