

Bag toppers

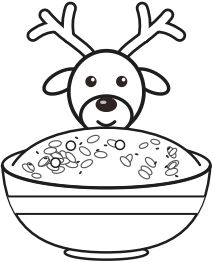

Cut them out, fold along the dotted line, slip the top of a little bag inside and staple it shut. Our poem ends up on the back.

Oats and seeds, in a bowl, not on the ground and the birds clean the bowl in the morning for you.
Dancer eats dancing, so he's messy, it's true,
then hop into bed (and we WON'T peek at all).
We set the bowl out on the step or the wall,
for hooves and for noses, for feathers and wings.
No glitter, no sprinkles, just good, simple things
for eight hungry reindeer who need a quick stop.
A bowl full of oats with some seeds on the top
